POLICY 2210
RECRUITING AND HIRING – SUPERINTENDENT

When an opening in the superintendency occurs, the School Board shall recruit in an effort to fill the position with the person deemed best to lead the District. The services of a consultant may be utilized in the recruitment process.

The Board shall consider only those candidates who meet or exceed state and local qualifications and who display the ability to successfully carry out the essential functions required of the Superintendent of Schools.

The Board shall employ the Superintendent after an interview of qualified candidates by members of the Board. A majority vote of the Board shall be required to employ the Superintendent. The initial employment shall be for a period up to three years.
