RULE 6730
GUIDELINES FOR PLANNING
SOCIAL EVENTS/STUDENT REWARDS TRIPS

No social events shall be scheduled which interfere with the instructional program. Student reward trips may be scheduled during the day if they include activities which relate to the instructional program.

Picnics and other social events by school groups, held off school premises may be approved only by the principal for special situations when satisfactory arrangements have been made regarding the safety and welfare of participants.

Normal field trip arrangements shall be made for any social excursions in accordance with the District guidelines.
