KENOSHA, Wis. (Friday, Feb. 6, 2015) – The Kenosha Unified School District has updated its 2014-15 school calendars to recover required contact minutes due to school closings on Jan. 7, 8 and 9 and Feb. 2. The following calendars reflect specific schools and grade levels. Each building will reinforce these changes in upcoming parent communications, including any changes to listed times. Revised calendars also will be updated on kusd.edu.

- Early Education - 4K/Early Childhood/HeadStart (except Frank, Wilson and KTEC):
  - The Early Education program holds both a.m. and p.m. sessions Monday through Thursday. KUSD has designated the following Fridays as instructional days, with three days for the a.m. sessions and two days for the p.m. sessions. Specific building schedules, including arrival and dismissal times, will be communicated once finalized by each individual school.

- Elementary schools (except Frank, Wilson, Brompton, Dimensions of Learning and KTEC):
  - The following early release Fridays will convert to full instructional days: March 6, 13 and 20.
• Extended Year Schools (Frank and Wilson):
  o The following optional enrichment days will convert to full instructional days: March 23 and 24.

• Middle schools (Bullen, Lance, Lincoln, Mahone and Washington)
  o Beginning April 13, middle school start times will begin two minutes earlier. This will continue for the remainder of the 2014-15 school year.

• High schools (Bradford, Indian Trail High School and Academy and Tremper):
  o The March 13 Asynchronous Day (non-student day) will convert to a full instructional day.
  o The following early release Fridays will convert to full instructional days: March 6 and 20, April 17 and 24, and May 1 and 8.

• LakeView:
  o The March 13 Asynchronous Day (non-student day) will convert to a full instructional day.
  o Beginning March 16, LakeView’s start time will begin five minutes earlier. This will continue for the remainder of the 2014-15 school year.

• Reuther:
  o The March 13 Asynchronous Day (non-student day) will convert to a full instructional day.

• Hillcrest and the Phoenix Project are designated as alternative programs and will not require any corrective changes.

• Charter Schools (Brompton, Dimensions of Learning Academy, eSchool, Harborside and KTEC):
  o The Wisconsin charter school law gives charter schools freedom from most state rules and regulations in exchange for greater accountability for results. KUSD charter schools have school board approved exemptions to the DPI minute requirements, however, the Governance/Advisory Board of each school may elect to make adjustments to best serve their respective programs. Each school will communicate any changes to the 2014-15 charter school calendars.

KUSD will continue to monitor the requirements for school contact minutes and make further adjustments if necessary. Parents should contact school offices with specific questions.
